Volume III

Pacific High School

San Leandro, Calif.

Action Highlights

Participating in the year's first activity, students arrive at the Hello Dance.

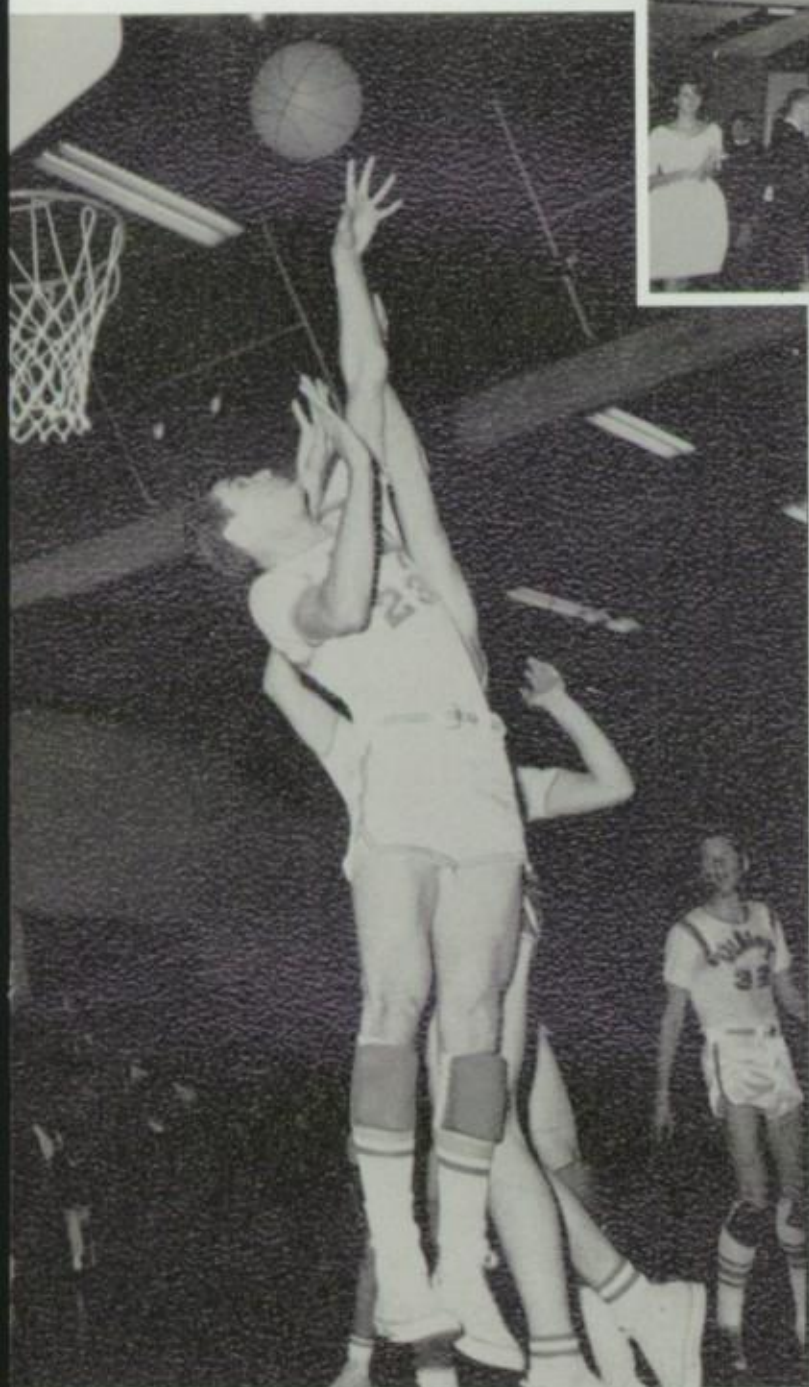

With the slogan "Happy Halloween," Seniors break in their new lawn with a game of football.

Fred Carris runs hard for a short gain in the San Leandro vs. Pacific game.

Year

1963-1964

Sports Queen Contest winners and escorts are Bob Krous, Lynne King, John Gillock, Bonnie Boné, Marilyn Souza, and Bob Albritton.

Dancers swirl beneath the decorated dome of the cafeteria at the G. A. B. Dance.

Darrell Youngblood jumps to block shot made by San Leandro Pirate.

Linda Munoz, Marilyn Gonzales, Cathy Effigino, Virginia Hernandez, Kathy Holly, Carolyn Yawn, and Sharon Michells sing in this year's production of the Mikado.

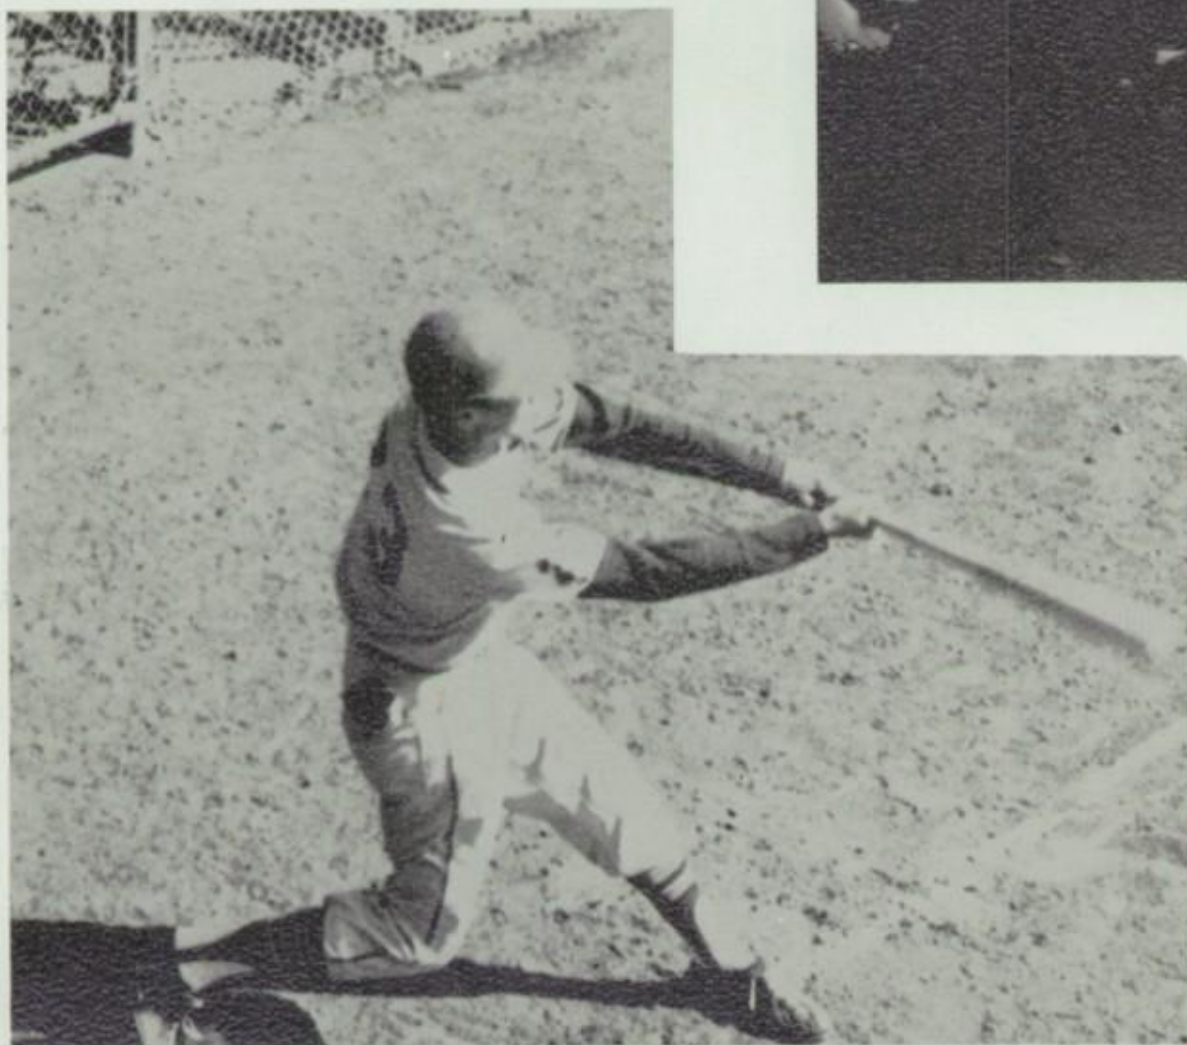

Scaling the ladder below, Ed Sequeria and Pam Norvell decorate the cafeteria for the Gorgeous Gams Dance, aided by Tonya Quinzon and Karen Drake.

Only his hair dresser knows. (Dennis Moniz, senior slave day.)

Soda Sippin' Shuffle Part II entertains couples as they dance. Dancing here are Chuck Talminson, Benny Ramous, Ron Peterson, Sue Jensen, Dottie Oller, and Cheryl McCulloch.

Darrel Youngblood connects during game against St. Elizabeth High.

Spirited crowd at Alameda rally.

MIRRORS reflect faces. Pools reflect tree branches.
Windows reflect the sky. A yearbook reflects a school, its---

MOODS: its flashing triumph, and its despair, its relentless pride and its humility, its determination and its resignation, its gaiety and its sorrow;

MEMORIES: the Big Game, the academic struggle,
the jammed lockers, the crowded halls, the seminars,
the pickle sales;

MULTITUDES: the exhausted seniors up until three studying, the inspired teacher, the flushed sophomore at her first dance, the victorious sprinter.

MIRRORS reflect. Pools reflect. Windows reflect.
Yearbooks reflect. . . and within the 1964 Valhalla are myriad reflections of Pacific High School.

The late President speaks at the University of California's Charter Day services, which a number of Vikings attended.

Pacific High School joined the nation in mourning the loss of the late President, John F. Kennedy. Special memorial displays were set up on campus, and the school flag was flown at half mast.

Dedication . . .

The 1964 Valhalla is dedicated to John Fitzgerald Kennedy, the 35th President of the United States. We can never forget November 22, 1963, when, with the words, "The President is dead," we learned of his sudden death.

For many, the assassination of this certainly great man has become symbolic of the tragedy which is so often a result of hatred; therefore, in dedicating this yearbook to the late President, the Valhalla staff also dedicates it to the elimination, in our nation and all other nations, of the prejudices, biases, and hatreds that give rise to such outrages as the President's assassination.

Around and around they go, lost in the whirl of a new place and pace; newcomers are broken-in on the first day of school. Lockers are found, friendships renewed, new classes and teachers discovered; all is part of the excitement of September 10, 1963, the first day of school.

Those familiar with the school casually walked the campus, but others were intent upon the discovery of the grounds.

The day, started with an assembly, began the 1963-64 school year for new and old alike.

... students rediscover school and friends.

As the Year Opens . . .

... grounds are flooded with excited students.

... the first assembly begins.

... old and new arrive. (Kathy Brown and Pam Templeman)

... students rejoice. (Danny Willmes, Gordy Goletto, Mike Robinson, Bill Rankin, Harry Gualco, and Tim Fadda)

Playing the juke box are Wanda Blile, Sandy Mole, and Shirley Troché.

Opening this year's activities was the Hello Dance held October 13 in the quad.

Music from the juke box drifted to the students who danced 'neath the starry sky from 7:30 to 11 pm.

It's my turn to dance. (Sue Hancock, Valerie Licciardo, and Harry Gualco)

Students Get

Jim Hackmeier works on the first draft of an oil painting.

Acquainted

Classroom activities begin. Students get acquainted with new classrooms, teachers, and subjects as school begins for the year of 1963-64.

Gayle Archer and Claire Messenger listen attentively to a biology lecture.

Mr. Gordon Pappas coaches Linda Stephenson on the violin.

Friday afternoon finds John Gillock in a cheerful mood.

Students perform experiments in physics. SITTING: Ed Costa, Harry Gualco, Dennis Moniz, and Ada Wada. STANDING: Jim Powell, Charlie Schembra and Judy Taylor.

"What do you mean school's a prison?"
(Brian Robinson)

"Really?" (Linda DeJarnatt, Jodie Romero, and Sandy Reis)

"Let me in!" (Phil Childress)

"They call me Einstein." (Bill Reynolds)

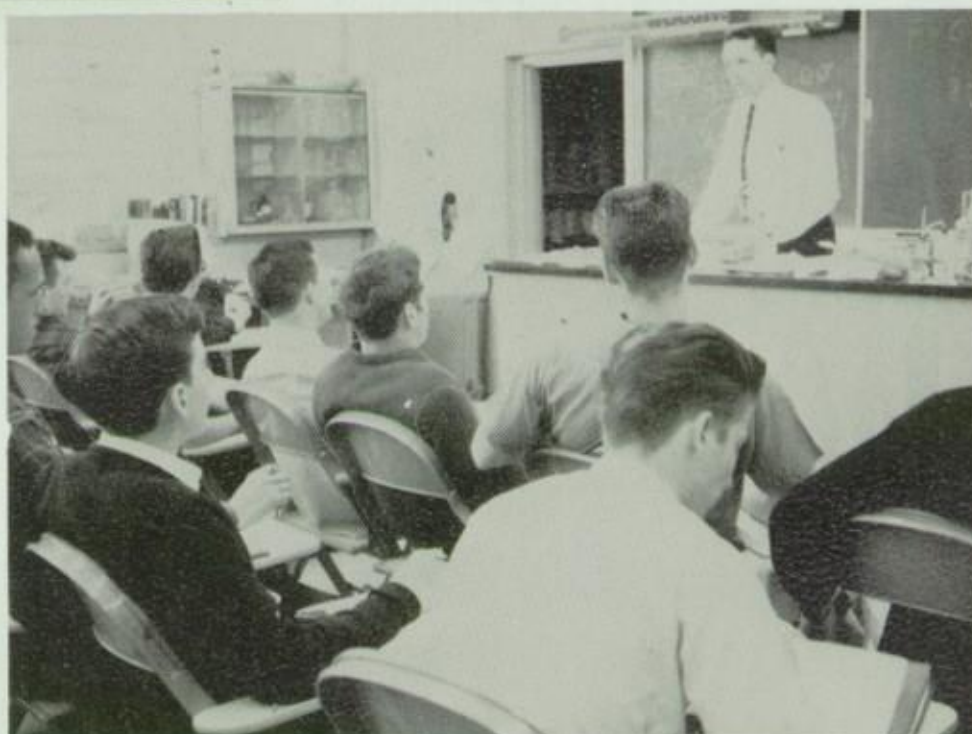

"Three steps beyond . . ." (Steve Millar, Norman O'Neil, and Walter Franca)

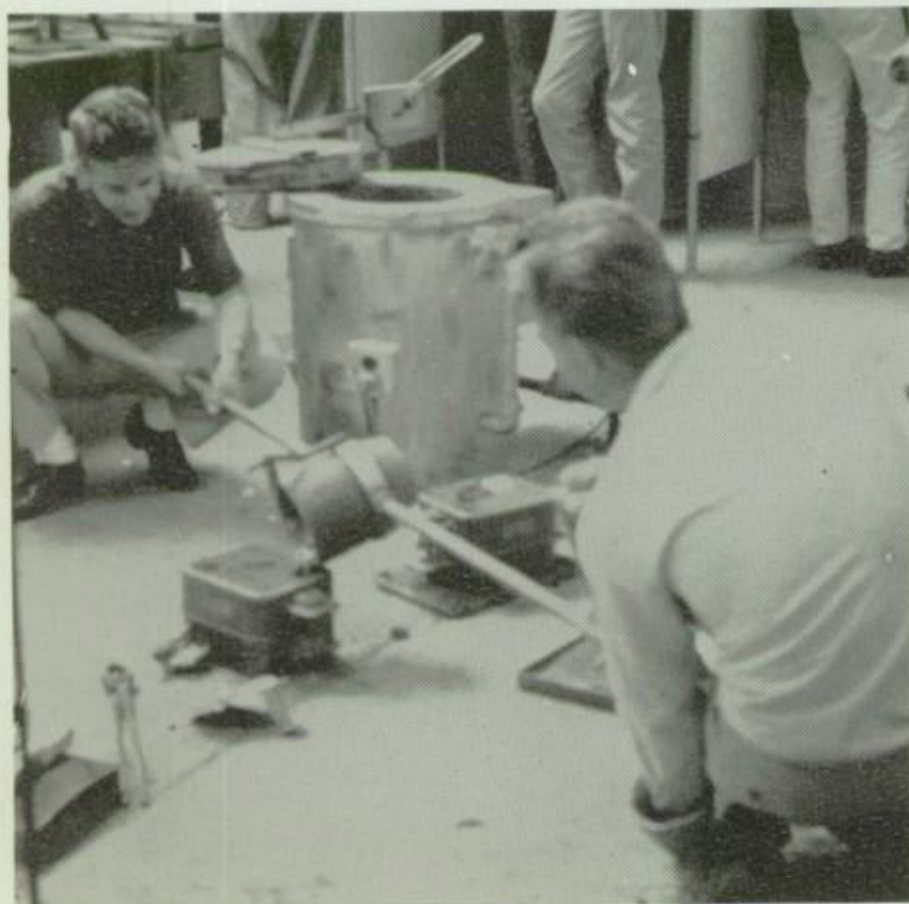

Mr. Joseph Critelli lectures Tech. Ed. English class.

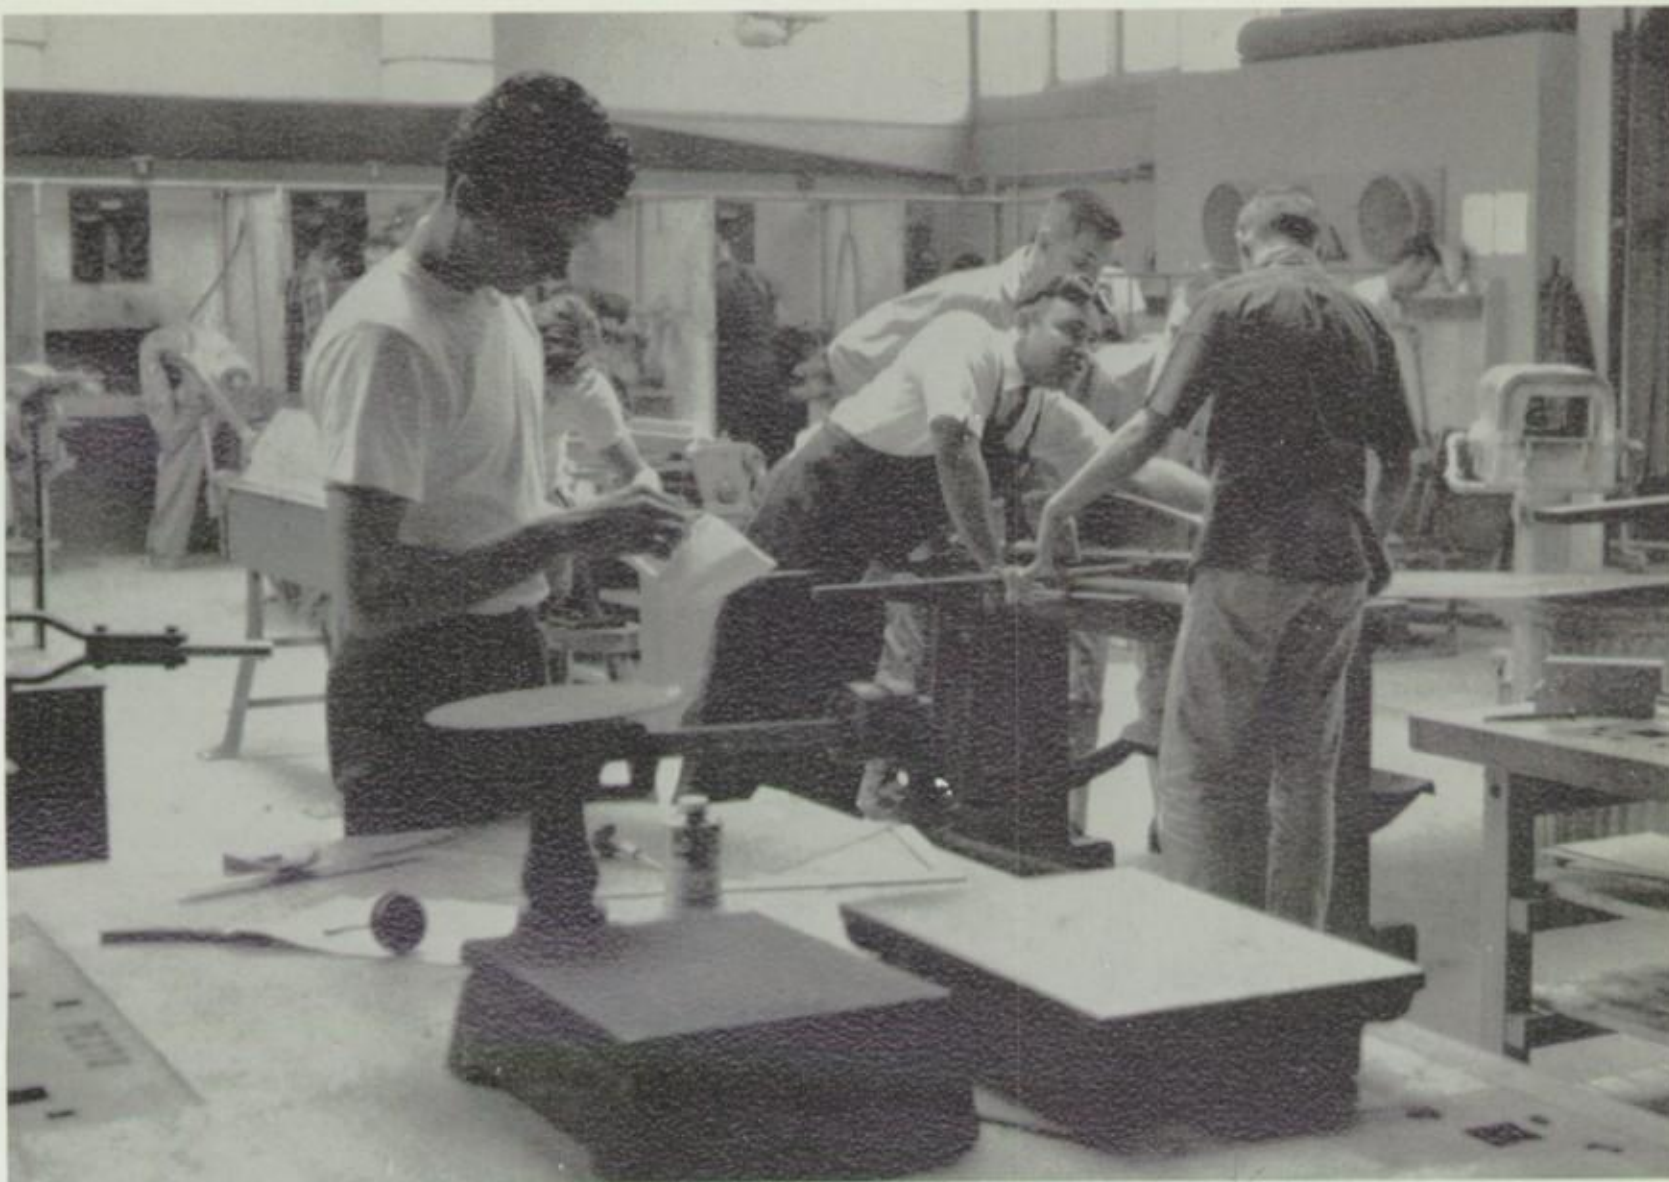

Listening to a lecture, students take notes in physics.

Working in the founding area (below) are Mark Blackburn and Floyd Belknap.

Special Courses Are Begun

While cutting sheet metal, Mr. Perry Carter gives instructions to Richard Krimm and John Florenzen. Working in the foreground is Larry Keany.

Something new has been added to Pacific this year: a special course dealing with the technical approach to learning problems.

The goals of this program are to enable students to study something that interests them and to prepare them for a two-year technical education in a private or public junior college or technical institute.

Receiving funds from the Ford Foundation, "Tech Ed" enrolled 30 boys this, its first year. Mr. Bruce Duncan, project co-ordinator, worked in co-operation with Mr. Joseph Critelli, English instructor; Mr. Perry Carter, tech lab instructor; Mr. Russel Gustafson, math instructor; and Mr. Herman Sherr, counselor.

Welding at right is Larry Petkovich.

Mrs. Helen M. Duey
Secretary

Members of the Board of Education are elected by San Leandro's voters to serve a four-year term. They set the policies, plans, and programs which guide Pacific's goals. Activating board decisions and administering San Leandro Unified School District is the superintendent of schools.

Mrs. Winifred Crew
President

Mr. C. Burrell
Superintendent

Mr. Frank A. Bricker

Mr. A. J. Oliveira

Mr. David Bruser, M.D.

Reflected as the coordinator of all functioning units at school, Mr. A. Winston Richards has the job, as principal, of overseeing the responsibilities for all phases of the operation of Pacific High School.

New as vice principal to the school, but not as a helping figure, Miss Nan Albright (below) coordinates department heads in curriculum development. She aids in the preparation of master schedules of classes, and assists at league and other athletic events.

MR. A. WINSTON RICHARDS, Principal.

Administrators for Pacific

Mrs. Alma Morten, secretary, and Miss Nancy Albright, vice principal.

Counselors

This year's counselors are Mr. Ken Bailey, Miss Rose Boché, Mr. Don Bergstrom, and Mr. Herman Sherr.

Responsible for the overall scope of activities as it affects the particular groups of youngsters at Pacific, counselors give personal counseling to students.

Advice is given in reference to educational and vocational problems, class programs are scheduled, and assistance given toward applying for scholarships.

Working in the Counselors suite is IWE worker Darleen Mathews.

Aiding students in problems involving school functions and outside activities are Mrs. Marjorie Camp, Dean of Girls, and Mr. Ray Barker, Dean of Boys.

*Sincerely
Mrs. Camp*

Not only a nurse, but a counselor in her field, Miss Marie Haugen aids and gives advice to students in health matters. Her major concern is the prevention of illness, rather than its treatment.

In the guarding of health, sight and hearing tests are given students. A commonly thought of, but comparatively small, portion of her work is administering first aid.

Mr. Ray Barker, Dean of Boys; Mrs. Jean Ebel, secretary; and Mrs. Marjorie Camp, Dean of Girls.

Deans, Nurse Administer to Pacific's Needs

Keep Wheels Rolling

Members of the year's office staff were Mmes. Naomi Van Zante, Irene Cranston, Shirley Tobin, and Sharon Nickison.

Keeping the school's wheels rolling, the custodians, librarians, office, and cafeteria staffs are major functioning parts of Pacific High.

Rarely seen, but greatly needed, the staffs perform maintenance, cafeteria, and clerical services.

Expression of one's own personality is developed by the subject of Creative Arts. To be successful in music, art, dance, crafts, or drama, one must project part of one's self.

Expression also is shown in physical skill and ability in the classes of physical education. Students not only get a daily amount of exercise, but experience in sportsmanship and skill.

Senior Sponsors Combine

Assistance and advice were always given willingly to the Senior Class by senior sponsors.

Seniors owe much gratitude to Mrs. Burt, head sponsor, for contributing her time to work at car washes, to help with decorations at dances, and for chaperoning many senior activities.

The enthusiastic participation of the sponsors can be shown from their presence at class meetings and board meetings. They worked closely with the Senior Class Board to organize activities for the students.

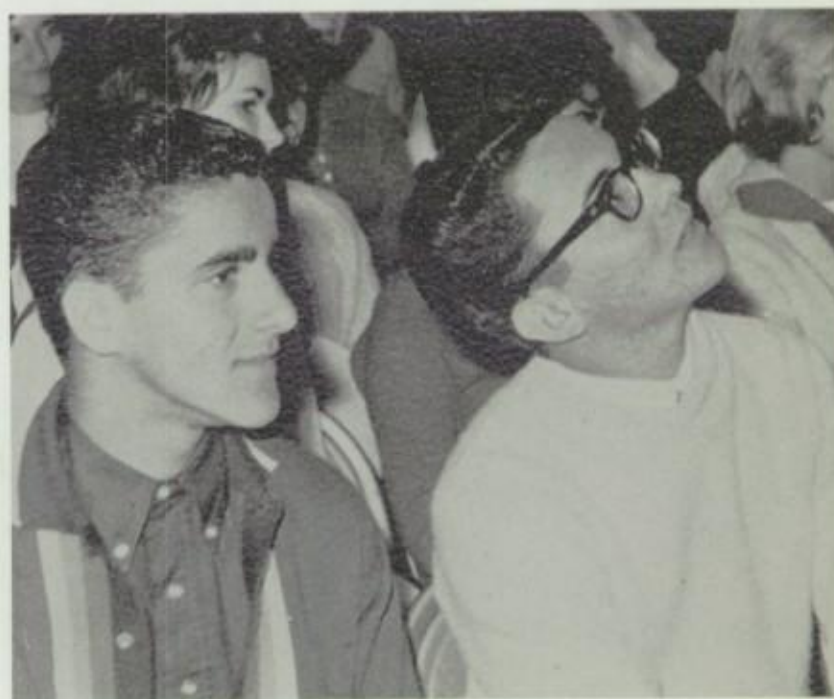

and Class Board Their Efforts

The introduction of many new programs at Pacific such as the first Senior Play, the first Hello Dance, and the first Senior Hayride was made possible through the cooperation of the Senior Class Board with the Senior class. The Senior Board gave freely of its own time to assist the Senior Class in all activities.

Two of the new traditions established by the Seniors were those of the Senior Lawn and the Senior Benches.

Directories For Sale

Sue Kuzmicky listens to Tonya Quinzon's sales pitch for the senior-sponsored Student Directory.

The selling of the Student Directories was the first fund-raising activity of the Senior Class.

The directories contained the names, addresses, and phone numbers of students enrolled at Pacific.

Seniors sold ads during the summer in order to publish the directories for 35¢ apiece.

"The directories added about $375 to the class treasury," reported John Gillock, Senior Class president.

Top Thirteen Scholars

Some top senior scholars "hamming it up" are: Mike Robinson, Charlie Schembra, Tonya Quinzon, Ada Wada, and Dennis Moniz.

The top thirteen senior scholars were announced by Mr. Kenneth Bailey, scholarship advisor. Each student was chosen on the basis of his or her respective gradepoint averages.

The gradepoint averages ranged from 3.619 to 3.953.

Are Announced

Four of the top twelve scholars - Darlene Loran, John Gillock, Diane Denego, and Kathy Souza.

Four more top scholars are Karen Emahiser, Sandy Jackson, Connee Walker, and Barbara Savery.

Seniors Ride

Rich Edell and his date and Rich Gonzales with his date enjoy the evening while Miss Sophia Vlamis, teacher, talks with Virginia Hernandez.

With a push and a shove, everyone was able to scramble on to the wagons. This was the biggest problem presented by the first Senior Hayride held on October 5, 1963. Besides being the first ride, it was the first senior activity of the year. This class-sponsored event was held from 6:30 to 11 p. m. at Big Bear Stables in Redwood Park, Oakland.

Students roasted hot dogs and buns to eat with beans for their old-fashioned cook-out.

Bobbie Lopez and Ron Runolfson get hot dogs ready for roasting.

by Night

Clem Thompson, Liz Brunson, Steve Borré, and Marilyn Trowbridge roast weiners over an open fire.

Beans and hot dogs have real appeal for Claudia Munoz and her date, Jeannette Rodriguez, Lilly Dutchover, Jerry Sanborn, and guest.

Seniors Try to Skate?

Dick Gonzales, Bill Rankin, and Rick Monge land on the ice. Onlookers come to the aid of these boys, but who is helping whom?

With a deep breath for moral support, seniors tried their luck at ice skating.

The annual Senior Skate, sponsored by Pacific High's Senior Class, was the first joint activity for Pacific High and San Leandro High.

The event was held on Saturday, January 18, from 7 to 10:30 p.m. at the Berkeley Iceland Skating Rink.

Is Ed Costa lacing or unlacing his skates?

P.H.S. Gets

Enchanted by the music of the Duquaans, students swayed to and fro as the second annual Hello Dance got under way in the quadrangle. The dance, sponsored by the Senior Class, was held on Friday night, September 13. Besides dancing to the music of the Duquaans, the crowd was able to twist to a live juke box. Highlighting the evening was the reunion of the alumni with old and new Vikings at this, the first activity of the school year.

Vikings Win Free

Disc jockey "Honest" John Trotter greets excited Pacific students.

Dance

Fierce school spirit and wholehearted student body support won Pacific High a free dance sponsored by the radio station, KEWB.

The dance excited Pacific High as it was the first dance to be held on a Saturday night and the only one ever to be given in the gymnasium.

Local disc jockey, "Honest" John Trotter, emceed the dance on the evening of October 26.

Guest stars, The Pageants, provided lively music for the overflow of Viking students and their guests that flocked to the dance.

Jim Dias and Dyane Silva swing right along as the KEWB Dance gets underway.

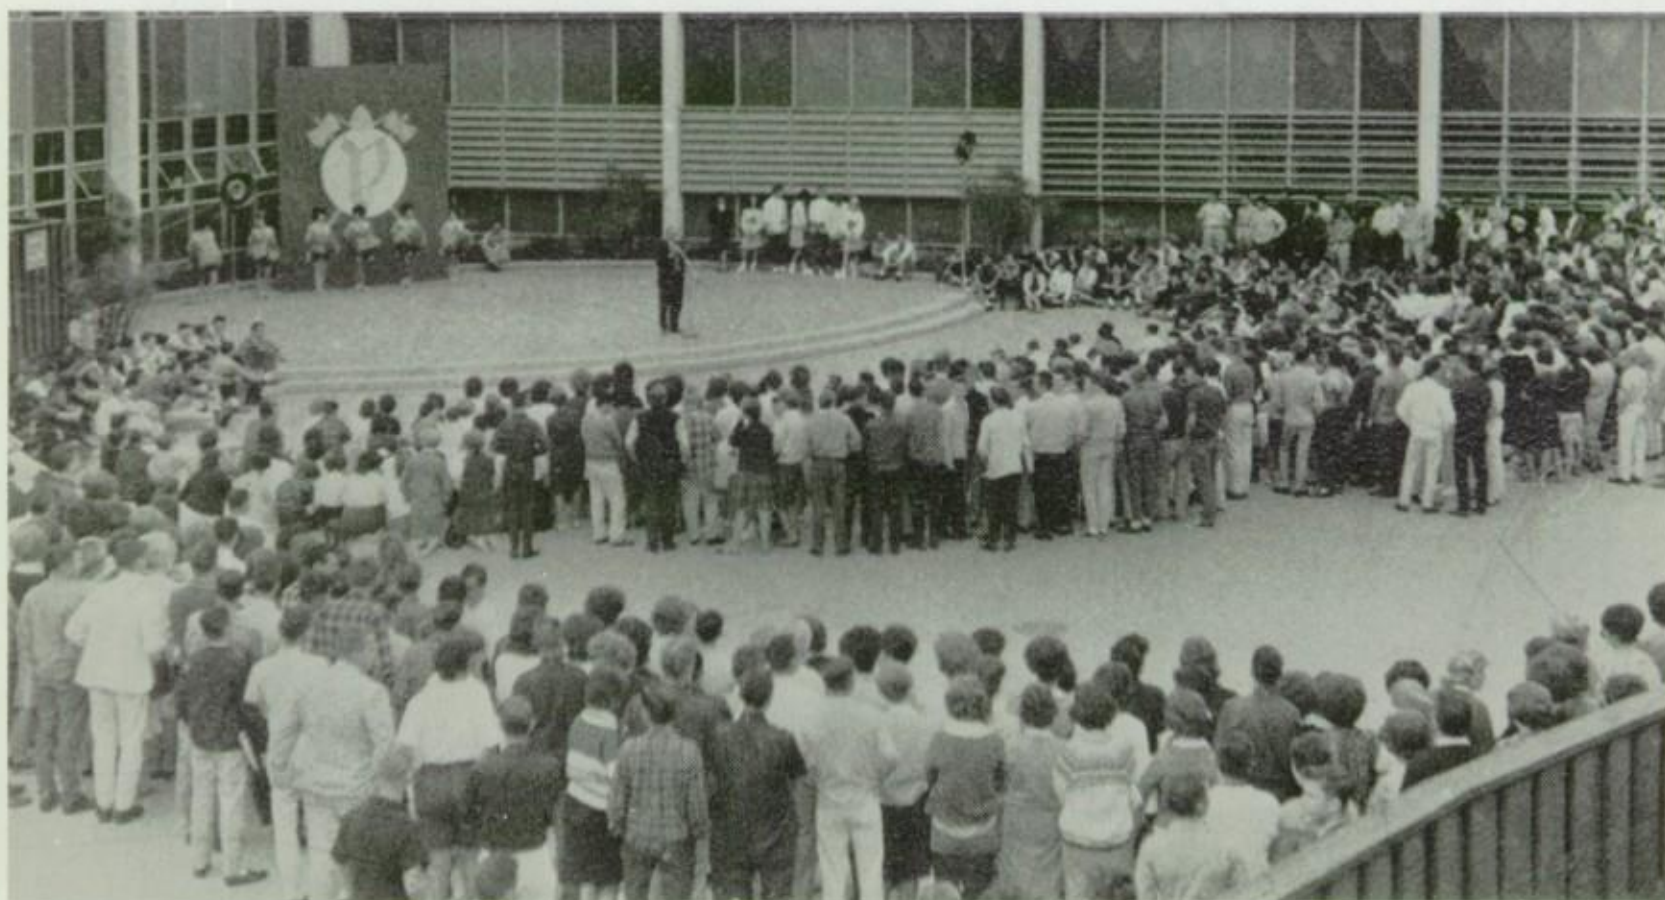

The Pageants steal the show at the KEWB dance.

Rallies School

Mascot Ed Marquez clowns at San Leandro Rally.

"On you gallant Vikings,
Brave and valiant Vikings,
Fight, fight, fight for Victory. . . ."

Students listen attentively to Mr. Richards at first rally.

Boost Spirit

Tom Scott and Steve Simone introduce "Herkemer-The stuffed Dog" at basketball rally. The dog was awarded to the winner of the candy counting contest at the Soda Sippin' Shuffle.

Girls from fourth period modern dance class don football uniforms in comedy skit about the varsity's exercises.

"Drip, drip, drip, drip . . . whad' ya want, kids?" "BLOOD!" Pom poms whirling, batons twirling, leather-lunged cheerleaders roaring. "Rah, team!" A mad, gay, gloriously crazy frenzy; a rally. Stand up, sit down, scream. Cheer for the glory of Pacific. There's no team as fine as the Viking team, and no rally as much fun as a Pacific High rally. RAH . . .

"Vikings! Vikings! We're the best!" lead Sandie Furtney, Diane Denego and Tom Smith.

Vikings

"If you don't elect Robinson, you will be put in a coffin!" chant the Sons of the Sands at the election assembly.

Innovation and novelty keynoted Pacific's 1963-1964 assemblies.

The addition of weekly activity periods, re-organization of the honors and awards assemblies, and the introduction of split-session assemblies were some of the major changes made in Pacific's assemblies.

Introduced for the first time was the school hymn; it was sung by choir members who were decked in their new green and gold robes.

John Stewart of the Kingston Trio sings during a Viking assembly.

Are Entertained

Boys of the Danish Gymnastic Team march forth to do their body-building exercises.

Approximately 1,000 people attended the March 13 exhibition of the Danish Gymnastics Team. The program, which began at 8 p. m., included demonstrations by both the men's and women's divisions of the Danish team and a special exhibition of Danish folk-dancing.

Arrangements for the appearance of the Danish team, a world-renowned group, were made by the San Leandro Recreation Department and the Pacific High Physical Education Department.

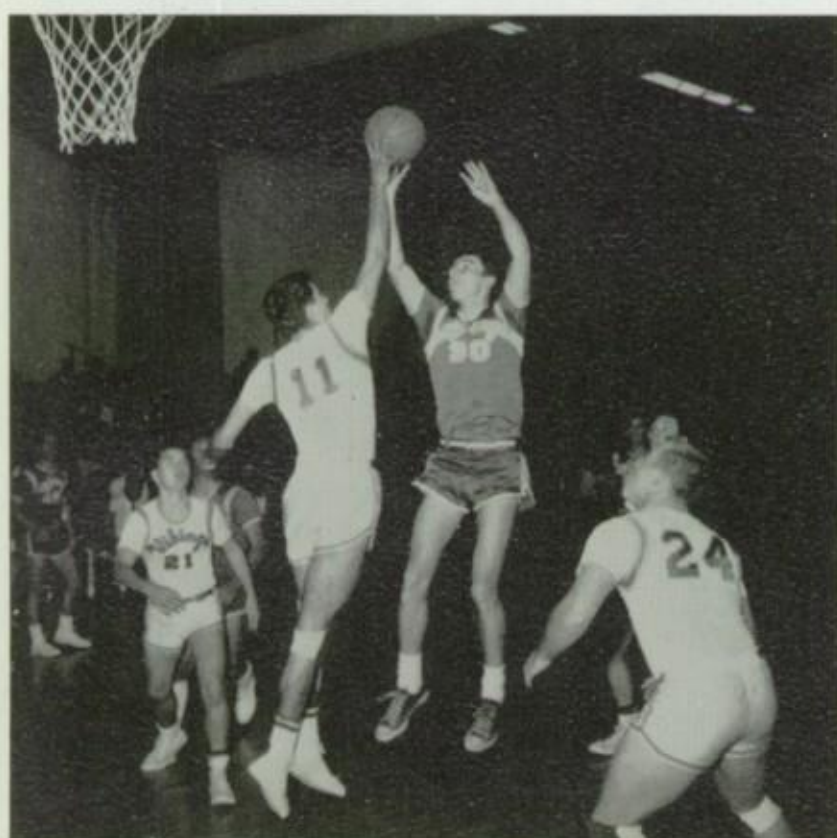

Girls from the team display grace and beauty while performing.

Something New Is Added

One of the first clubs to meet during the activity hour was the Interior Decoration Club, under the direction of Mr. Peter Palm.

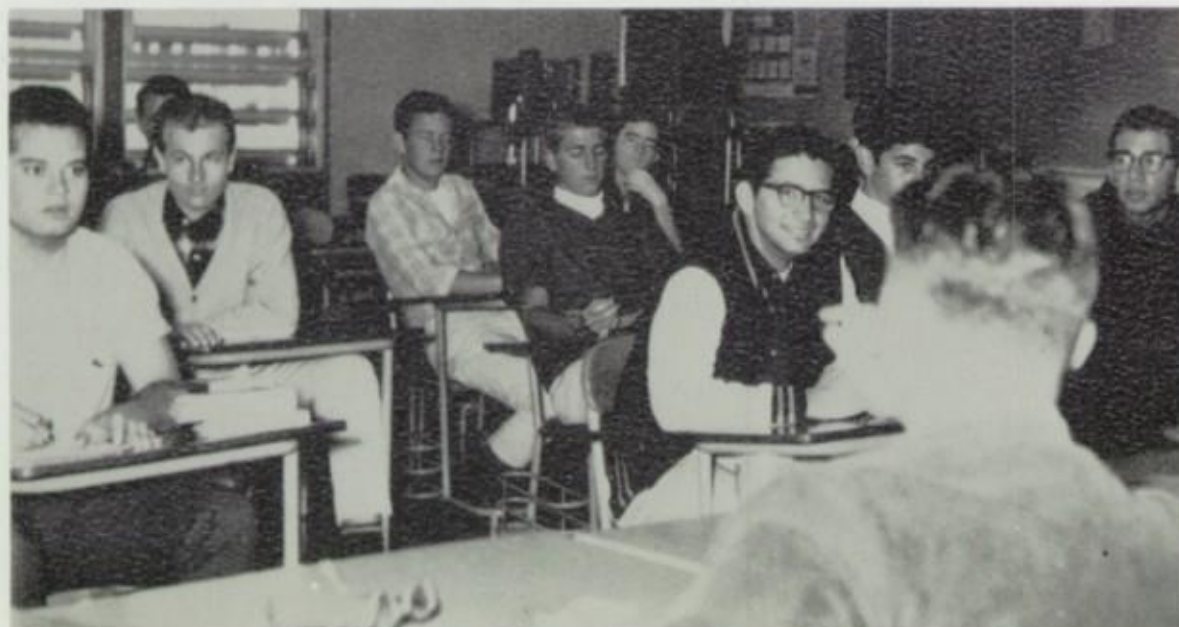

Something new was added this year: the first activity hour ever to take place at Pacific High.

A weekly activity hour was scheduled; of the four scheduled per month, one was used for club meetings, and the others for student government, student senate, executive council, class board meetings, or study hall.

The results of the activity hour poll, which was taken in February, proved that 80 percent of the student body favored the activity hour arrangement.

Another new club on campus was the Movie, Television and Record Club, under the direction of Mr. Miller.

This year a new feature was introduced to the contest: Class escorts were on hand to present the girls with flowers. Escorts were, John Gillock, Bob Kraus, and Bob Albritton.

Action Behind the Scenes

The Pacific Stage Crew, formerly part of the "Pacific Players," has been working independently for the last two years.

The Stage Crew does all the stage work and handles lighting and sound for assemblies, rallies, and other school activities.

The biggest project of the year was "The Mikado." For this musical, the stage crew had to build a volcano, three Torii gates, and a false ceiling for the stage.

Members of the stage crew are: Danny Jones, Larry Mignone, lights; Milt Chapman, general electrician; Russ Garecht, sound and stage manager; Ed Sequeira, assistant manager; Lynn Bingham, Pam Turner, props; Steve Martinez, Gary Morgan, Eddie Newland, Toney Lerma, Rich Gatty, Chuck Tomlinson and Bill Swift, general assistance.

Sophomores get excited at the Pacific-San Leandro Rally.

Sophomores were soon at home at Pacific and able to lose themselves in the between-class crowds.

Upperclassmen at PHS

Throughout the year, sophomores joined upper classmen in supporting the mighty Viking teams and various student body and club activities.

Sophomores Jaci Rivos, Joy Louis, and Joanne Lurger jumped right into school activities-including the Sports Queen Contest.

Sophs Become

Sophomore Renee Houston passes Junior John Moisa on the stairs . . . Sophs soon learn that Pacific has a LOT of stairs.

Part of PHS

Unlike juniors and seniors, sophomores are new to Pacific, and so must become accustomed to the surroundings before they can feel that they're a real part of the school.

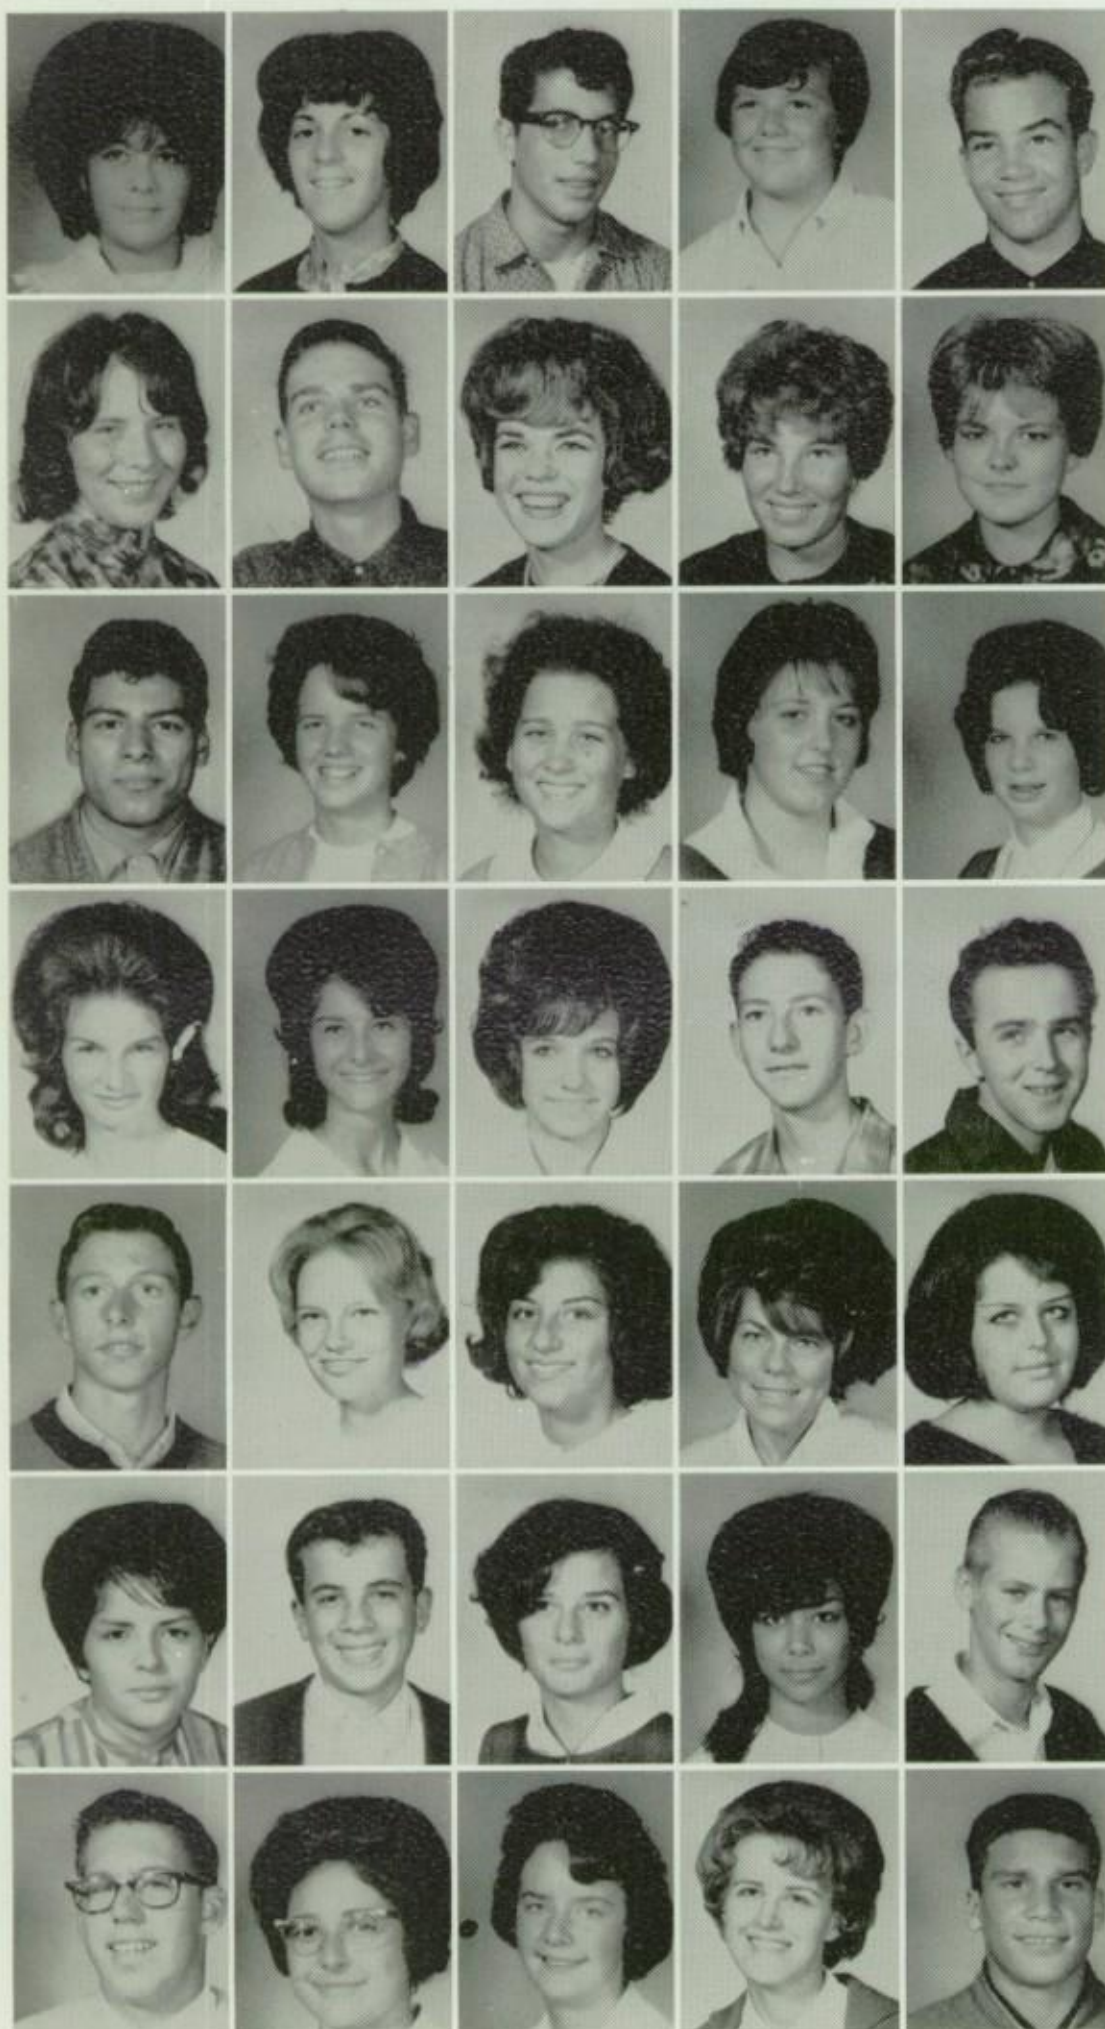

Sophs soon get to know their way around Pacific and begin to make acquaintances among the upper classmen. By the time Sophs have involved themselves in club and student body activities, they're a real part of Pacific.

We Crown Queen

Attendant Lynn King is crowned by Diane Corbett.

This year's crowning moment came when Diane Corbett, last year's sports queen, bestowed Queen Bonnie Boné, Princess Marilyn Souza, and Attendant Lynn King with flowers and tiaras.

The crowning climaxed a two-week sales campaign in which candidates sold over $1,200 worth of tickets for the yearbook.

Besides flowers, the girls received a royal ride around the football field during halftime of the San Leandro game on November 8.

Princess Marilyn Souza is crowned by Diane Corbett.

Leading the spirit at Pacific High this year were the song girls, majorettes and yell leaders.

The addition of boy cheerleaders greatly boosted Viking spirit as this year's yell leading squad was increased to six members.

Helping the yell leaders were the song girl and majorette squads, which also were increased in size.

The Vikings began their '63 season by hosting the Richmond Oilers, September 20. The game was dedicated to Jim Geiser, a former football player, who was injured in an automobile accident during the summer and unable to finish his senior year. Although the Vikes lost to the Oilers 12-0, they came back the next week to even their league record with a win over the hosting Encinal Jets, 19-13.

Athletes Work and Are

"Hard-working" and "industrious" are words that describe the Norsemen. This year the Norsemen kept busy by selling refreshments at the football and basketball games and by sponsoring the faculty-Raider basketball game. Proceeds from the events went into the Norsemen treasury, which supplies money for the films of games and the scoreboard fund. Head sponsor of the club is Mr. Thomas Gunnari.

J. V. Coach Tom Gunnari, Varsity Coach El Brown, and San Leandro Coach Jack Triguero don Pacific uniforms and battle the Oakland Raiders.

Seniors are honored: Fred Cariss, most valuable back; Harry Gualco, most outstanding sportsman; Ray DeSoto, most valuable lineman.

Seniors who worked for this year's football team received honors from Coach Tom Gunnari and his wife at the annual recognition dinner.

The athletes regained the pounds they lost during the season as Mrs. Gunnari prepared a lavish array of food for the feast.

Fred Cariss holds trophy awarded to him as most valuable senior player.

Varsity Breaks Even in Practice

Four wins and four losses went on the record for the varsity basketball squad during its practice season. Also included was a 53-50 victory over the alumni. Receiving most valuable player trophies at the game were Ron Peterson (varsity) and Bob Nunes ('63).

The Vikes kept busy during the Christmas vacation as they traveled to the Bishop O'Dowd Tournament, where they placed seventh in competition by beating Encinal 51-46. The honor of being elected to the all-star team went to Ron Peterson, who scored a total of 50 points in the three games.

Spirit Is Created By . . .

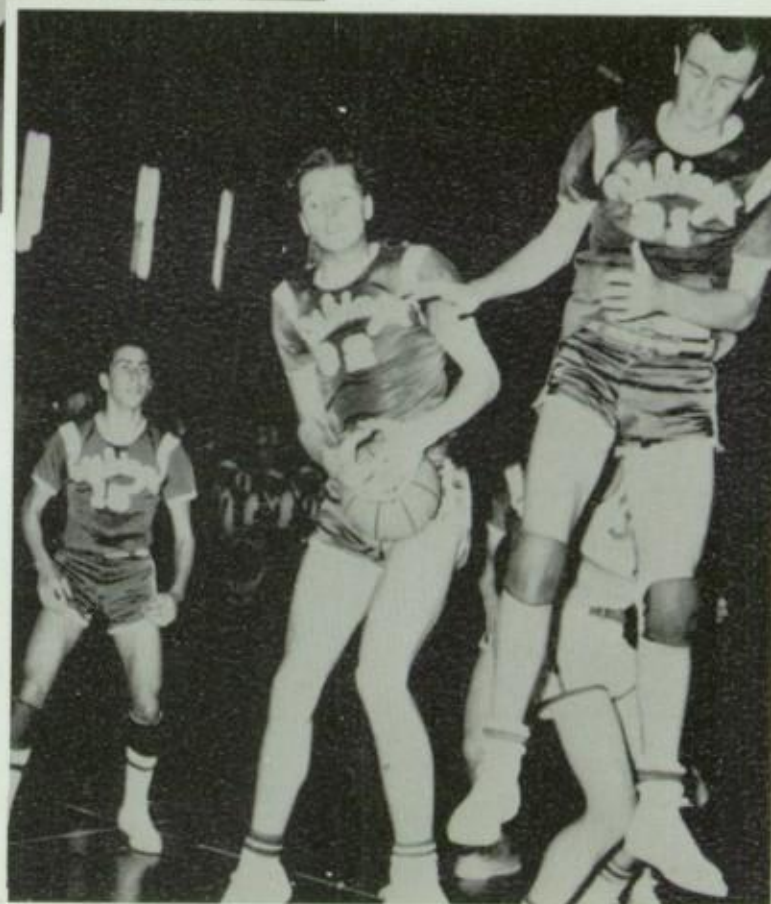

. . . the pep band,
led by senior John
Ihnot

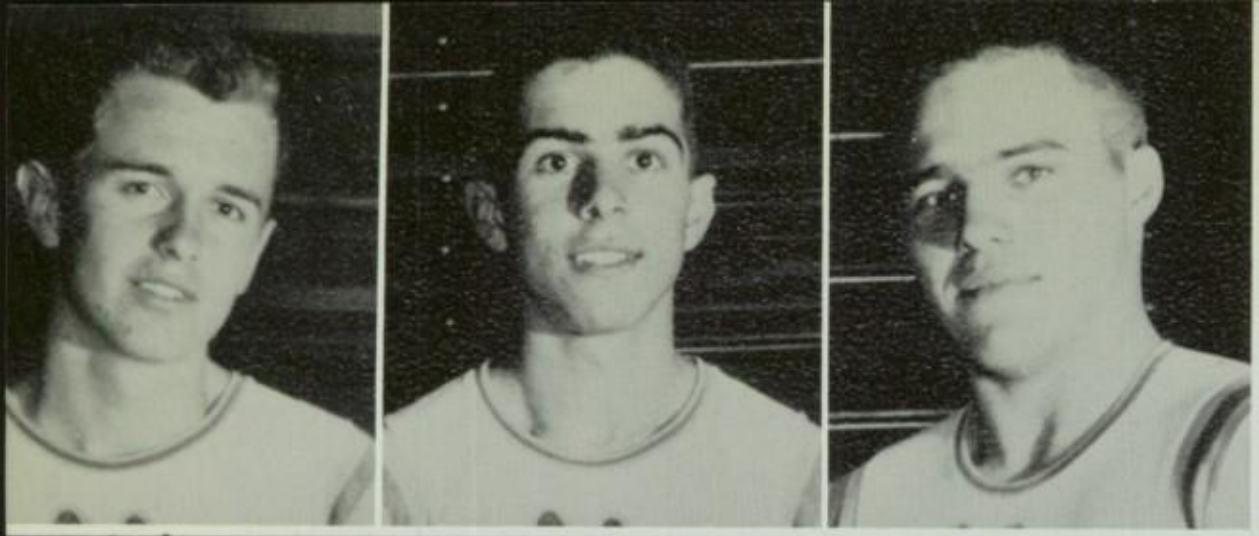

. . . the Barker's Rowdies, led by senior Harry Gualco, and,

. . . the fine playing of this year's basketball squad, led by senior co-captains Ron Peterson and Denny Moniz.

Ralph Cook out-jumps San Leandro players to come down with a rebound. In the foreground Bill Sharp prepares to assist him.

Graduating from the Basketball squad are Ron Peterson, Dennis Moniz and Fred Cariss. All three made the Viking hall of fame.

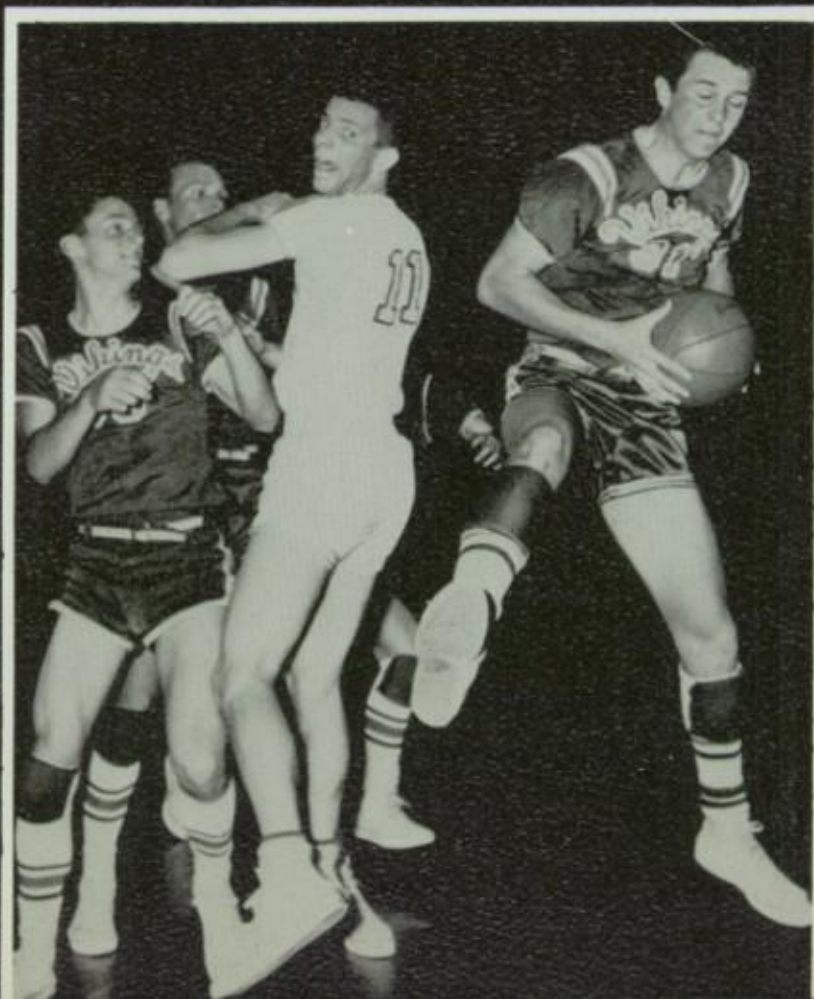

Vikings show how they dominate the floor.

"Smash, smash, smash!" said the Vikings during the basketball season. Their reason for the slogan was the smashing of 17 league records by the varsity basketball squad. Records, points, balls, and players were really flying as senior co-captain Ron Peterson slashed five individual marks; senior co-captain Dennis Moniz cut three; and junior Ken Murray broke two.

Earning the honor of most valuable player this year was Dennis Moniz. The reward came to Dennis after "Brown" points were given for: rebounds, gaining possessions, assists, field goal percentages, free throw percentages, scholastic averages and scorings.

"Help!" cries a Viking opponent as he is surrounded by Vikes. Ron Peterson gets rebound, while Ken Murray and Ralph Cook take care of the opposition.

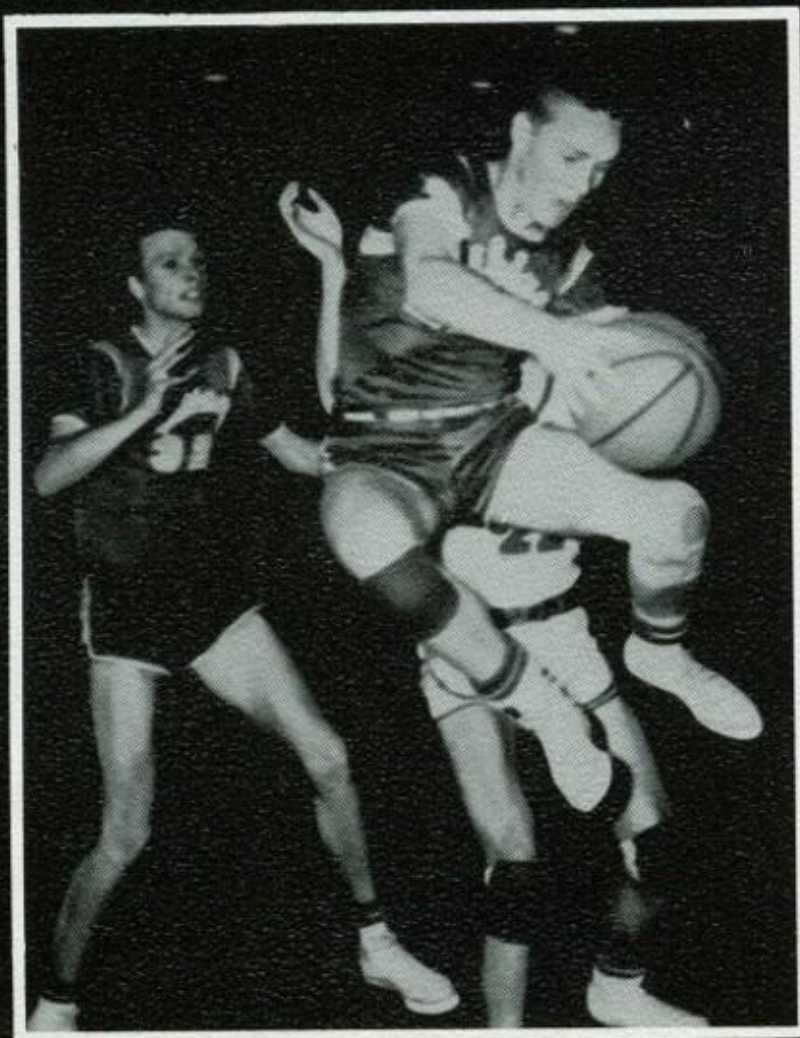

Smashes Records

Coaching the mighty Vikes to a 5 win, 11 loss season was Mr. Elvin Brown who not only guided the team, but the spirit of Viking rooters as well. The credit for creating the special basketball Pep Band goes to Mr. Brown. The band, led by senior John Inhot, played at home games as well as all away games.

Placed in the Viking hall of fame for their performances this season were: Dennis Moniz, most valuable player, best defensive player, and player with the best scholastic average; Ralph Cook, best sportsman; Wayne Childree, most improved player; Ron Peterson, most dedicated player; Fred Cariss, most aggressive player.

"Let's get the ball out of here!" cries Ralph Cook to assisting Ron Peterson.

Teams Gain Experience

J. V. and Soph teams furnish the future players of Viking varsity teams. Shown above are two sophomores who have already advanced to J. V. and varsity teams and a junior who gains experience for next year.

Continuing the record-breaking season of the varsity was the J. V. basketball squad. Of the six J. V. records broken, three were slashed by Mich Bazzel, most valuable player, and the others were set by Aubrey Rhine, Bill Lanterman, and Jody Kitchen. The team, coached by Mr. Tom Gunnari, won five and lost eleven league games.

A tap of the bag and out number two. First baseman, Gary Bosch, stretches for an easy out.

Varsity Gets Into Swing of Things

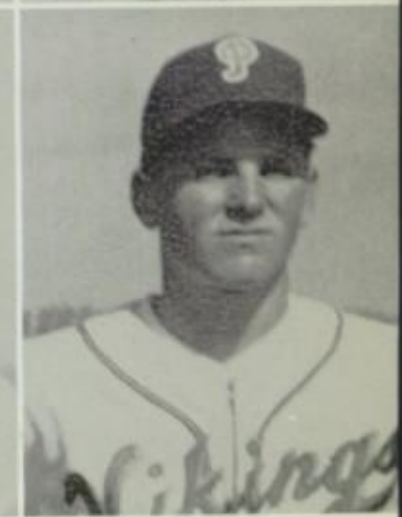

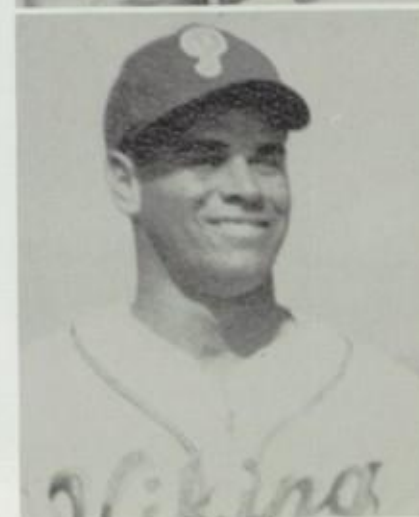

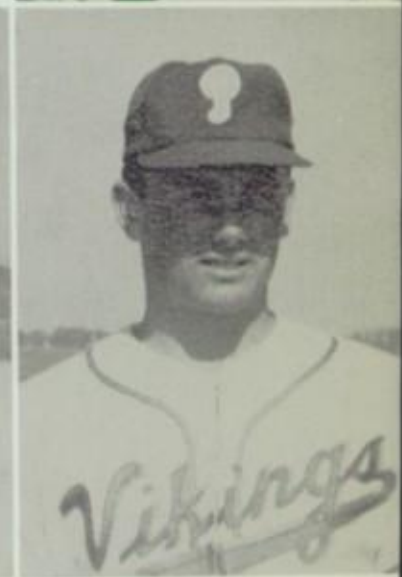

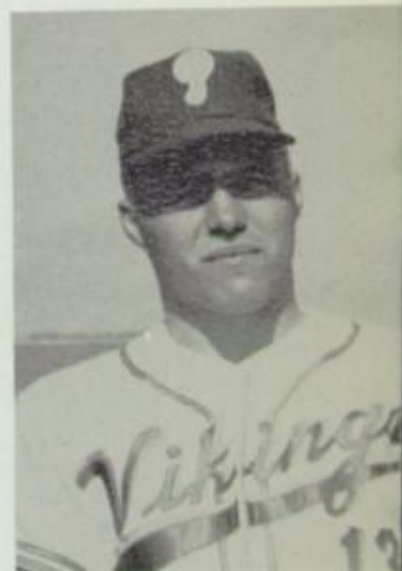

Keeping an eye on infield action and providing Pacific with a run is Ben Ramos, Viking pitcher.

Showing strength in the early part of their 1964 season, the Viking varsity diamond men, coached by Mr. Jim Johnston, captured 7 victories in their first nine games.

During Easter vacation, the Vikes kept in championship form as they swept first place in the Pacific High Easter Baseball Tournament. Pacific pulled a 2-1 win against Encinal and a 9-0 victory over Harry Ells to become the top team.

Ben Ramos was rewarded for his fine pitching in the early part of the season by being selected as All East Bay Prep of the Week.

Seniors on this year's baseball team are Fred Cariss, Ray DeSoto, Dan Fuller, Ben Ramos, and Tom Burkett.

Varsity and J. V. Squads

Encinal clubman is no match for Viking pitcher who just threw strike two. With the ball is catcher Jim Hardman.

Dennis Branco, J. V. catcher, reaches out for a wild pitch as the good old "Ump" calls a ball.

Sharpen Spikes

Winning games and furnishing players for next year's varsity is the work of the junior varsity baseball team. Many juniors and sophomores moved up to varsity competition, and the J. V. 's collected a number of victories.

In the early part of their 1964 season, the J. V. 's defeated Arroyo, Tennyson, Oakland Tech. and Encinal. The team was coached by Mr. Carl Feick.

Bowling isn't for this junior varsity pitcher. Bruce Reed speeds one over the plate.

Swimmers Dive Into

Swimmers are not to be outdone by the players of any other varsity sport. This year's water men upheld the '64 standard by breaking nine records in their first five meets. New marks were set by: Tom Musch (3), Dan Waters (2), relay teams (2), Bill Sharp (1) and Bob Ross (1).

The varsity, coached by Mr. Bob During, won three of their first five meets. The B's, who were not as successful, promise to be valuable on next year's varsity team.

Don Wilson (left) gets encouragement from fellow swimmers as he competes in the 200-free B's.

Season

John Gillock and Tom Musch (both in stripes) dive into the 200 freestyle.

Vikes Burn Up

"Ugh," grunts Harry Gualco as he practices the broad jump.

Mike Robinson jumps into the clouds as he warms up for the pole vault.

Track

Adding to the Viking's sensational record-breaking year, the track team turned in five new marks in its first six meets.

Some of the new marks set were: pole vault-13'6" by Mike Robinson; discus-150'-3 1/2" by Charles Schembra; broad jump-20'11 1/4" by Harry Gualco; high jump-5'10" by Dennis Flynn; and 2 mile-10:19.5 by Mike Bailey.

Charles Schembra (right) gives a "heave-ho" and let's go.

Track and Cross Country

Get on your mark, get set, GO! Bill Reynolds, Fred Speckmen, an Encinal cinderman, and Les Miller jump off at the sound of the gun.

Teams Work Hard

Larry Bain, returning letterman, was the backbone of the 1963 Cross Country Team. Larry picked up his second A. C. A. L. medal when he placed seventh during the finals at De Anza High this year.

Rated by Coach John Nelson as strong runners were Peter Bailey, George Muritto, and Randy German.

Beating Foothill High by the score of 98-105 was the Cross Country's great achievement this year. The victory came at a four way meet in which Castro Valley, Arroyo, Foothill and Pacific competed.

Larry Bain, junior, kicks out in A. C. A. L. league finals.
